

Best Buddies Non-Discrimination Policy

Best Buddies does not discriminate and conducts all internal and external operations and programs without regard to race, color, religious creed, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, age, ancestry, disability, marital status, political belief or affiliation, gender identity or gender expression or status as a disabled veteran in the provision of or access to services, employment and activities, and will not knowingly violate the Non-Discrimination law of the United States and any state of the United States.

Best Buddies is committed to providing equal access to employment opportunities for persons with disabilities. Best Buddies recognizes that individuals with disabilities may require reasonable accommodations to have equally effective opportunities within our organization. Best Buddies shall adhere to all applicable federal and state laws, regulations, and guidelines with respect to providing reasonable accommodations as necessary to afford persons with disabilities equal employment opportunity and equal access to programs.
